

100 YEARS OF ROE GREEN VILLAGE

Roe Green Village Writing Competition

To celebrate this year's centenary we would like to publish a collection of short stories written by village residents. Intrigue us with your Mystery, humour us with your Comedy, scare us with your Horror or fascinate us with your Fantasy tales. Whatever you choose, we want your stories!

The Challenge

Write an original story of up to 500 words. The story can take place at any time in the last 100 years and should be set somewhere in Roe Green Village.

How it all works

Creative writing tutor and Village resident, Frances Low, will initially review all submissions and create a short list. Selected stories will be sent to our external judge to decide the winner in each age group:

- 5-10 years old
- 11-17 years old
- 18 years +

Prizes

All entries will be published in 'Centenary Tales' and the winners will be published on the Roe Green Village website.

All the stories will be displayed (with writers' permission) and winners announced on Village Day, 30 June 2018.

The small print

Open to current and past residents. All stories must be your own work, set within the last 100 years and located in the Village. Multiple entries accepted. Typed entries would be appreciated.

Additional entry forms available at www.roegreenvillage.org.uk

For further information and to submit your stories, contact welldone@lineone.net

Please send us your stories!

Deadline for entries: 30 April

With thanks to Brent for part-funding this event
